

MATT ATTARD

PRODUCER / SONGWRITER

Matt is a multi-instrumentalist musician, writer, artist, and founder of Hot Tag Media Works - a project focused on composing bespoke entrance themes for some of the most renowned professional wrestlers in the UK.

Cardiff-based, Matt is a prolific and versatile composer and vocalist, capable of writing across different genres and producing to brief, often to very tight deadlines. His plans for the upcoming months include writing more bespoke material for Hot Tag Media, and developing his craft with more commercial writing and collaborations with artists and songwriters.

Attard also plays guitar and sings in a three-piece pop-punk band called Junior, alongside WWE wrestler Mark Andrews. He performed with Junior at Download Festival 2017, Various UK tours and two headline shows at The Dome in Tufnell Park.
